The Pop Department of the ‘Conservatorium van Amsterdam’ has developed some of the most innovative music industry education currently available and offers full-time tuition in Guitar, Bass, Drum, Keyboards and Vocals, Music Production, Songwriting, Creative Sound Design, Music Business and more. It houses a Bachelor and a Master programme. The school focuses on creating new adventurous compositions in popular music.

The faculty is varied. The staff are all actively engaged with the music industry, musically or business-wise. As performing or recording artists in their own right, songwriters, engineers, managers or publishers, regularly touring with high-profile bands. Our students benefit directly from this wealth of experience and knowledge in the classroom and on stage.

The school provides practice facilities, personal tutoring, band coaching and also a wide range of clinics, showcases and gigs. During their four-year’s study Bachelor of Music at the Pop Department our students gain practical and intensive training, whilst gaining a comprehensive understanding of the music industry.

If you are serious about your music education then the Pop Department of the Conservatorium of Amsterdam is where you need to be! The Pop Department of the ‘Conservatorium van Amsterdam’ would like to invite everybody and anyone with a love for music to become our friend and keep up to date with our latest news.
